

Irish hotel's top gong for rooms with a view

WINNER: Lisloughrey Lodge in 'bible' for the jet set

THE champagne is on ice at top Irish resort Lisloughrey Lodge after the hotel earned a mention in the cult Conde Nast Hot List.

The hotel was selected to be among 136 hotels and destinations worldwide to take a place on the hot list - which is regarded as a bible for the jet-set.

Put together by a team of experts, the guide brings together the best in the hotel, restaurant, bar and nightclub trade worldwide in its stylish pages.

And visitors who may wish to follow its lead can rest easy - as the research is carried out anonymously, meaning every hotel who makes the grade is worth its salt.

The Lough Corrib hotel's rooms and picturesque views scored highly with the guide.
